SAG LIBRARY RULES

General:

1. Both members and visitors must sign in and out of the buildings. Members need to wear their membership card while in the premises; non-members and Guests will be issued with a temporary pass to display.
2. Cases, bags, folders, pens and sharp instruments such as knives and scissors must be left in lockers, which are provided free of charge. The Society reserves the right to inspect any items which have been taken into the libraries.
3. Mobile telephones must be switched off or turned to mute and may only be used outside of the buildings.
4. No smoking is permitted within the buildings.
5. Food and drink may only be consumed in the kitchen, including bottled water.

Conduct in the library:

6. Pencils only may be used.
7. No library items may be removed from the building and all items must be handled with care.
8. Researchers must behave in a manner which does not disturb others. Conversations should be restricted to areas where research is not being carried out.
9. While children younger than 16 not undertaking research in their own right may accompany adults into the library, staff on duty must give permission for them to do so. Children must be suitably supervised at all times and their behaviour must not disturb researchers or disrupt library operations.
10. Voluntary assistants are on duty to help researchers use the collections. They should not be asked to conduct research which can be reasonably undertaken by the individual concerned.

Photocopying and equipment:

11. All copying is subject to copyright laws and must be for personal research purposes only. A Copyright Declaration Form is to be completed for all copying and the relevant charges paid.
12. Copying for any other purpose is subject to the written permission of the Society.
13. Photocopiers and fiche/film printers are only to be used by volunteers. Members may use their own scanner, digital camera or mobile phone to make copies provided no flash is used and a Copyright Declaration Form is completed.
14. Laptops may be used within the libraries provided they are battery powered. USB drives or other memory devices may not be connected to SAG computers.
15. Services such as air conditioners, lights, blinds etc may only be operated by staff.

If admitted as a member, I agree to abide by the above rules, as altered from time to time by Council.
